“OBC Cell”

❖ Introduction:

The OBC Cell was started in the college with the main goal of empowering OBC students there, helping and advising them in their extracurricular and curricular activities, and providing them with support. The Cell was established to support students from these groups in their inevitable integration into society by ensuring their holistic development and significant contributions to societal advancement. Also, provide scholarships through the government and provide them with the benefits of scholarships.

❖ Aim:

"To provide equal opportunity to OBC students, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff in the college".

❖ Objectives:

The main objectives of the SC/ST cell are as follows:

- 1 To ensure that OBC students have equitable access to educational opportunities.
- 2 To make it easier for students from these communities to get financial aid from governmental organisations and other sources.
- 3 To inform OBC students about the several scholarship programmes offered by the federal and state government.
- 4 To offer rapid counselling in response to any emotional emergency brought on by any occurrence occurring on the college campus.
